ABOUT ME

Maria is a Bilingual (English & Spanish) New York based Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Psychotherapist and Clinical Supervisor with over 10 years of clinical experience. Maria firmly believes that the power of the relationship between therapist and client is vital to the healing process. Maria holds independent clinical licenses in NY, PA, MD, MA and FL.

She seeks to destigmatize and decolonize mental health by using a culturally affirming/anti-oppressive framework in her clinical work with clients and in supervision. Maria is committed to increasing access to mental health care in all communities.

Maria's specialty populations include Latinx, BIPOC, LGBTQIA+, millennials, and trauma survivors. She is the founder of Concordia Therapy LCSW, PLLC.
